

Article 191 of the 1992 Constitution provides a list of agencies that constitute the Public Services of Ghana. Article 195 of the Constitution further provides that "the power to appoint persons to hold or to act in an office in the public services shall vest in the President, acting in accordance with the advice of the governing council of the service concerned, given in consultation with the Public Services Commission"

In the performance of its functions, the Public Services Commission collaborates/consults with governing boards of public service agencies, some of which are listed below:

Public Service Organisations Governing Council

Civil Service	Civil Service Council
Audit Service	Audit Service Board
Parliamentary Service	Parliamentary Service Board
National Fire Service	National Fire Service Board
Health Service	Health Service Council
Ghana Revenue Authority
Ghana Revenue Authority Board
Ghana Education Service	Ghana Education Service Council
Ghana Police Service	Police Council
Immigration Service	Immigration Service Board
Local Government Service	Local Government Service Council
Non-commercial Public Corporations	Board of Directors
Extra-Ministerial Organisations	Governing Councils
State Media Houses	Governing Councils
National Media Commission	National Media Commission
Commission for Human Rights and Administrative Justice	Commission for Human Rights and Administrative Justice
National Commission for Civic Education	National Commission for Civic Education
Economic & Organised Crime Office	Economic & Organised Crime Office Board
National Council for Tertiary Education	National Council for Tertiary Education
Minerals Commission	Minerals Commission
Electoral Commission	Electoral Commission
Forestry Commission	Forestry Commission
Fisheries Commission	Fisheries Commission
National Development Planning Commission	National Development Planning Commission
Lands Commission	Lands Commission
Energy Commission	Energy Commission
Subvented Organisations	Governing Councils

Board of Directors

Governing Councils

The governing boards/councils of other Public Services, which are established by the 1992 Constitution; and such other public services as Parliament may by law prescribe.